FOR RELEASE ON RECEIPT

ART MUSEUM BOARD ADDS TWO TRUSTEES

Mrs. James S. Reid, Jr., and Jack W. Lampl, Jr., have been elected to the Board of Trustees of The Cleveland Museum of Art, Museum president James H. Dempsey, Jr., announced today.

Mrs. Reid is associate director of the Regional Council on Alcoholism, involved in developing, funding, and evaluating programs for the prevention and treatment of alcoholism, a field in which she has worked since 1974.

Mrs. Reid also serves as a member of the visiting committee of Case Western Reserve University's School of Applied Social Sciences and as a member of the United Way Allocations Panel. She has been a member of the board of trustees of Laurel School since 1975 and a member of The Cleveland Museum of Art's Junior Council for more than fifteen years.

Mrs. Reid received her bachelor's degree from Smith College and her master's degree in urban studies from Cleveland State University. She and her husband, president and chairman of the board of The Standard Products Company, live in Cleveland Heights.

Mr. Lampl, chairman and chief executive officer of Sunamerica Corporation, has been a member of the Museum's Advisory Council since 1977 and was a member of the Campaign Committee to raise funds for the Museum's new library and gallery addition. He also belongs to The Cleveland Society for Contemporary Art, an organization affiliated with the Museum which supports its efforts to purchase contemporary art.

Mr. Lampl serves as president and director of The Arden Company in Miami, Florida, is a director of the AmeriTrust Corporation and the American Financial Services Association, Washington, D.C., and is a trustee of the Western Reserve Historical Society and University Hospitals.

Mr. Lampl graduated from Shaker Heights High School and Harvard College. He and his wife, the former Carolyn Cosel, live in Shaker Heights.
